

There's no Christmas on Pluto This Year

The Interplanetary Board of Santas have decreed...

Each planet has its own Santa.

But Pluto isn't a planet — just a dwarf planet

Only a Full Planet is qualified to have its own Santa

Ipsa facto, Pluto doesn't get a Santa!

Santa Terra

Santa Venus

Santa Mars

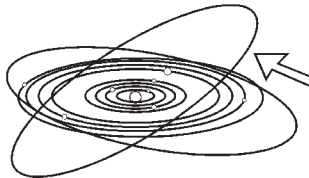

Santa Saturn

So write your Member of Congress today and demand Christmas for all the little Plutoid children!

Happy Holidays

Little known fact!
All the Santas of the Solar System live on Dwarf Planet 2003 EL61 (aka Santa).
The North Pole is just a mail drop!
